

trek wildest CHILE

A six-day, lightweight, tiny group traverse of breathtaking new Parque Nacional Patagonia!

Fly to Chile's southern city of Coyhaique (Balmaceda airport). Get your feet back on terra firma at lovely hotels with spacious gardens in Coyhaique and Chile Chico. Backpack 60 km along two stunning lakes and through five distinct valleys, camping four nights in Martha's tents and one in the private Glaciar Hut. Carry just your personal gear (40-50 litre pack), while porters carry our tents, food and kitchen equipment.

Arrive in awe inspiring Chacabuco Valley, lingering to savour a celebration lunch at the gorgeous Chacabuco Lodge. Our seven hour road trip back to Coyhaique is sure to be a spectacular adventure on the famous and rugged Careterra Austral. We will stop along the way for a night along the shores of the lovely Green River.
